THE FUTURE OF MEDICINE BEGINS HERE

ILLINOIS

The Medical Scholars Program (MSP) at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign is an MD/PhD program committed to preparing a diverse cadre of Physician-Scholars to confront the multi-dimensional problems and issues that face medicine. The MSP has over 150 MD/JD and MD/PhD students pursuing graduate study in over 35 academic disciplines, including the behavioral sciences, humanities, physical sciences, as well as the biomedical sciences. With such diverse student perspectives, the MSP provides a unique and electric environment for bright and creative scholars to pursue their passion for combining cutting edge research with individualized high quality clinical training.
