Internal Medicine Residency Hotlines!

- Have a question or a problem or a concern?
- Hesitant to bring it to your chief, attending or to the residency administration?

Here are some options:

1. To talk personally to Ron Brewer, The Graduate Medical Education Ombudsman call 217-244-0659 to schedule an appointment; or call directly to talk to Ron; or call the number after hours and leave Ron a voice mail message.

2. To talk personally to William Marshall, Chair of the Graduate Medical Education Committee for the University of Illinois and Representative to the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education call 217-383-4615 to schedule an appointment; or call 217-383-4616 directly to talk to William; or call the number after hours and leave William a voice mail message.

3. To talk personally to Debbie McCall, Executive Assistant Dean for Administration about pay, benefits, licensing or visa status concerns call 217-265-6420 to schedule an appointment; or call directly to talk to Debbie; or call the number after hours and leave a voice message.

The College of Medicine wants to provide you the support you deserve. You can help us by contacting us immediately when you have concerns. Please talk to us when there are issues that you are uncomfortable bringing to others.